

Welcome to Station Library

Sunday: 1400-1900
Monday-Friday: 0900-1800
Saturday: Closed

Located between the Navy Yard Café
and the Chapel.
Just look for the yellow book drop!

NASP STATION LIBRARY

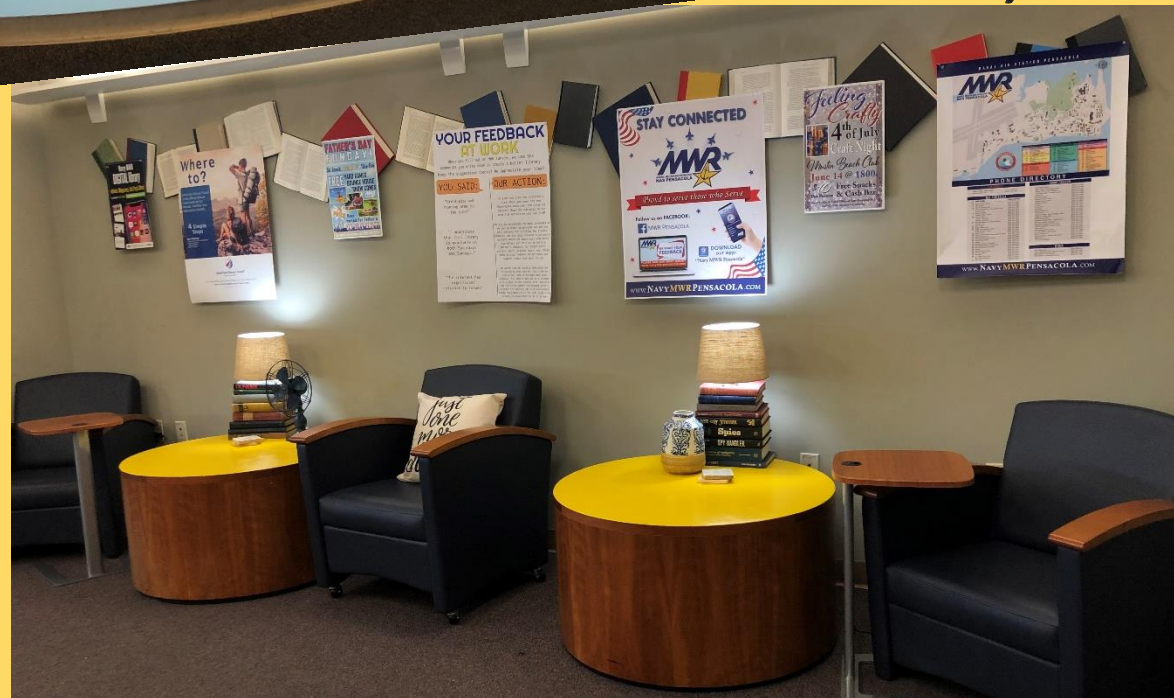

The swap shelf holds free books for your to borrow or keep, plus lots of information for upcoming MWR events.

NASP STATION LIBRARY

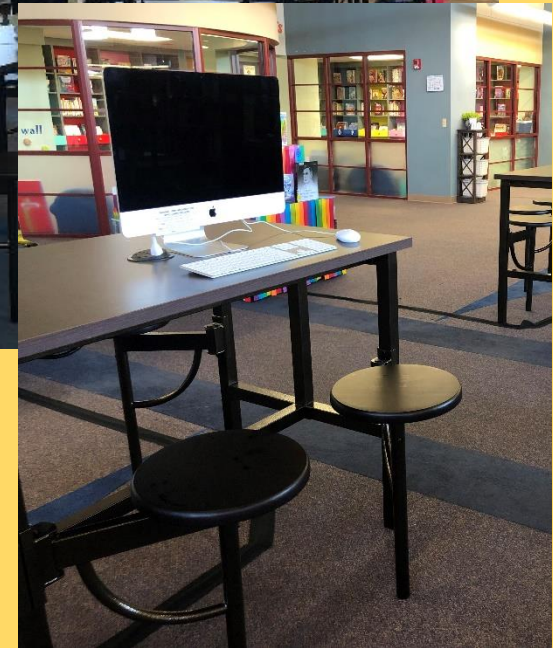

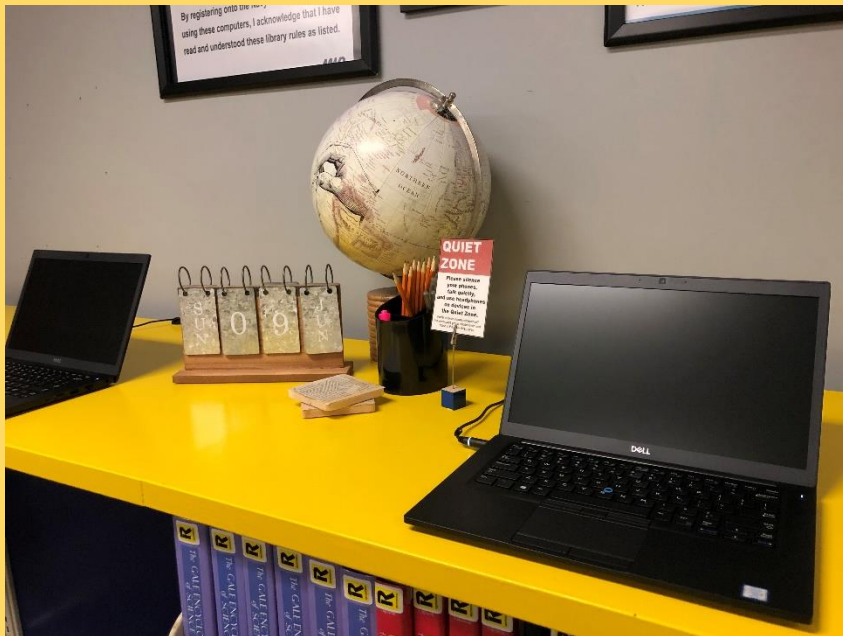

Signing up for a library account is quick and easy! Just bring your government ID to the Circulation desk when ready to check out.

Items are checked out for three weeks at a time, with no overdue fees, and easy renewal options.

Equipped with multiple computer areas, you'll find everything you need to browse the web or complete online training certificates. All of our computers come with CAC enabled keyboards, and access to the wireless printers.

Printing is limited to ten pages per day.

Laptops are available for check out while visiting the library.

NASP STATION LIBRARY

Sit down and relax while reading a book, a magazine/newspaper, or work on one of our puzzles or giant coloring pages. Food and drink is allowed in the library so feel free to snack while you enjoy the space.

The library welcomes noise! You won't be "shushed" here while playing Monopoly with your friends or having a group study session.

If you prefer a quieter library experience, visit the Quiet Zone room. This space is geared towards professional and educational development with study tables, individual carrels, power equipped spaces, and tables with dry erase boards.

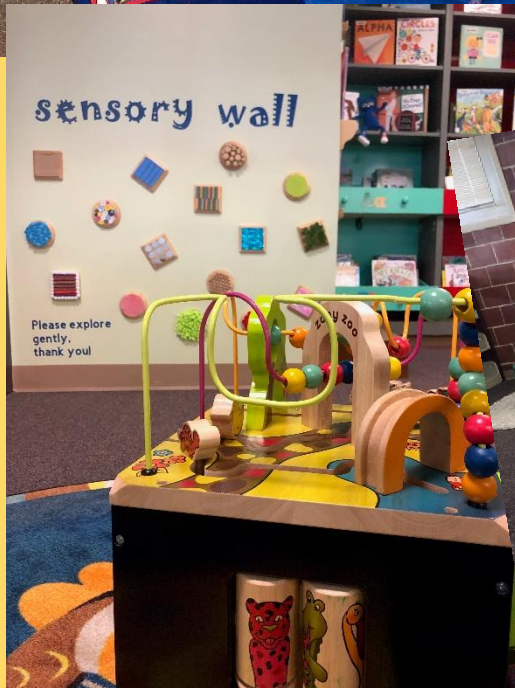

Please no talking, loud noises, or cellphone use in this space.

A separate meeting room space is also available for scheduling. Just stop by the Circulation desk and ask a library staff member how to use the room.

NASP STATION LIBRARY

The dedicated children's room and the Makerspace area are wonderful places for younger readers to explore and play!